LAYERS GET A DRUBBING

DEFEAT OF FIVE FAVORITES FAILS TO BENE FIT BOOKMAKERS AT CHARLESTON.

Winners All Come in for Stout Backing and Price makers Have Disastrous Day-Winning Witch Beats Pardner in Selling Handicap.

Charleston, S. C., January 6.—Vastly improved weather and fairly good track conditions were contibuting factors in the big attendance this afternoon at Palmetto Park. The contests were interesting, but the outcome of each race spelled disaster for the thirteen layers in line. Ordinarily the defeat of five first choices would have entailed much profit to the bookmakers, but in this case the contrary proved true. Each succeeding winner was heavily backed and it was a woo begone lot of pricemakers that took account of their losses when Letourno, backed from 6 to 1 to 7 to 2, led his opposition to the finish in the closing dash and provailing opinion is that the heavy and persistent losses of the layers was W. G. Yanke. The general investigation of the handicaps to fill. Jach brought together a fairly good band of racers. In the six-furlongs sprint Monocacy ruled an overwhelming choice, but the winner turned up in Water Lady, with Ancon and Langerous March second and third. Monocacy relieved from contention after going five furlongs. Water Lady was backed from 12 to 1 to 8 to 1. There was plenty of betting activity on El Oro for the fourth, but his chances of beating Winning Witch, which raced in her best form, were hopeless from the start, though he did manage to land third nemery principally because of the listless handling that Neander gave Verena.

In the "baby" scramble, Idiola had a comparatively casy time of it and beat Kewple and Norma L. In her previous and initial start Idioia was running prominently when she bolted and unscated her rider. Those who had that race in mind profited well by her victory today.

Roger Gordon, from the stable of Samuel Ross, won the first purse of the meeting for that establishment when he succeeded in beating Tom Mancocking the winner principally because of the listless handling that he opener. Belle Terre proved decidedly best in the fifth race, in which an ordinary band started, and Letourno over his entered price of $490. That for her was an influx of arrivals today, mostly for Mr. Orpen, but in future they will race in Bedwell's interest.

Track conditions were improved this morning at Palmetto Park and many racers were given work-outs, including the following:

MORE STAKES FOR OTTAWA MEETINGS.

Management of Connaught Park Jockey Club Plans Increases for 1914 Racing,

Ottawa, Ont., January 6.—The Connaught Park Jockey Club will increase its stakes by nearly $10,000 for the coning season. General Manager Rohrback announced yesterday that this would be the case, the large increase being mainly due to the new $3,500 Merchants' Stakes and the Directors' Stakes of $3,000. The Merchants' Stakes will be run during the spring meeting and is for the purpose of attracting the entries in the $20,000 Dorval Park Derby to Ottawa. The cream of the American three-year-olds will be seen in the big race at Dorval and that it is hoped practically the entire entry list for the big race will start here in the Merchants' Stakes. There will be five stake events at each meeting this year.

Action was decided upon by the executive committee with the idea of giving local patrons of the sport a chance to see some of the best horses on the continent in action. Aside from the two new stakes, the purses and handicaps will be increased in value. It has been arranged by Manager Rohrback to have one steeplechase each day, both spring and fall, and he will leave on February 1 for Charleston and Juarez to obtain subscriptions and round up the horsemen for both the flat racing and the jumps. Mr. Rohrback is paying particular attention to steeplechasing.

This spring the infield at the track will be in good shape, sodded and laid out as originally planned. On the far side of the track the name of the track will be formed of flower beds, it being arranged that the color scheme will be green and yellow, the Duke of Connaught's racing colors. The new chutes will be used this season and additional stabling accommodation, to house lifty more horses, will be built. Last spring the horses stabled at the track numbered 212, and in the fall 338. Manager Rohrback expects to see 450 horses here for the spring meeting this year.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

F. J. E., Hamilton, Ont. After Cousin Puss and Loween were scratched from race 12967, John Rear-don was the track correspondent's selection and the bet won on him, unless there were some conditions not mentioned by you.

C. G., Forest Park, Ill. Hamper has not raced since 1910. In his three years of racing he started thirty-eight times, of which he won eight, was second in eight, third in six and ran unplaced in sixteen and won $2,385.

Jockey Pilots Three of His Mounts to Victory at Juarez, All Being Favorites.

El Paso, Tex., January 6.—Three favorites won their respective races at Juarez this afternoon, Jockey Taplin had the mount on each of them. He started his series of successes with the two-year-old scramble, in which he plotted Teulane, an oddson choice. His other winners were Acumen and Little Marchmont.

Fort Sumter, after having been backed several times, made good today under the skillful handling of jockey Groth, who waited on the pacemaker. Mandadero, in the early stages and sent him along in the stretch to win quite handlily.

There was a jam in the fifth race on the lower turn and Malay, ridden by the diminutive colored apprentice, R. Crawford, was crowded so badly that he stumbled and fell. Annon, with jockey Stevens, could not get clear in time and also fell. Riders and horses escaped injury.

Fort Sumter was bid up by Walter S. Heath from $200 to $600, but was bid in by trainer P. T. Chim.

Wade McLemore, one of the leading breeders of Texas, arrived today from his home in Albany.

P. M. West, who has been assisting trainer Shelby West in carring for the horses in the stable of Doerhoofer & West, has left for his home in Louisville and will not return here this winter.

be able to fill with comparatively little reducing.

In looking over the list of stallions advertised for service in England next year I could not help noting that, for the first time, Carbine is missing from the Welbeck lot, Last year William the Third, St. Serf, Primer and Carbine were at the service of breeders, the latter at a fee of $240, but though the other three are again advertised, Australia's old Champion has dropped out. This, presumably, means that Carbine's owner regards his days of stud usefulness as practically over. He may possibly be given two or three of the Duke of Portland' mares, but there is evidently no intention of taking any frem outside, though, for that matter, I do not suppose there would now be anxiety on the part of any breeder to send anything to him. Carbine, now twenty-eight years old, did his first English stud season in 1896 at a fee of $1,000, and never got beyond that figure.—Pilot in Sydney Referee.

In Melbourne, Australia, recently, a well-known yond that figure.—Pilot in Sydney Referee.

In Melbourne, Australia, recently, a well-known bookmaker, S. Green, was found guilty of having offended against the law by having used "a public place," to wit, Box 541, at the General Post office, for the purpose of betting, and was fined $150. The magistrate contended that as defendant indicated to persons wishing to bet he could be communicated with by sending letters to the box mentioned, he consequently committed an offense under the act. For purposes of appeal a stay of execution for fourteen days was granted.

Fred Taral has left New York to return to Ham-

Fred Taral has left New York to return to Hamburg. The noted American horseman will handle a stable of thirty-six horses for Weinberg Bros, this year. He scored a big success last season, many events of importance having been won by the horses he had in charge. Willie Shaw, one of the most popular jockeys that left America to ride abroad, has been engaged to ride the Weinberg horses. Shaw, who is now visiting his parents in Oklahoma, will leave next month for Hoppegarten, Germany, where the racing establishment for which he rides, is located.

JOCKEYS' RIDING FEES IN AUSTRALIA.

The Australian Rules of Racing have been amended in respect of riding fees, and the principal alteration affects losing mounts. As the rules previously read, the losing fee for a ride in a flat race, where the stake exceeded $1,600, was $15. This meant the payment of that sum in every race run by the Australian Jockey Club at Randwick, and I have an idea it led to a little agitation by the New South Wales Breeders', Owners' and Trainers' Association. Whether this was responsible for the alteration I cannot say, but the highest losing fee on the flat now provided for is $10; while in connection with a hurdle race or steeplechase the losing fee is $5 where the value of the prize to the winner does not exceed $250, and $15 where it exceeds $250, but does not exceed $500. Previously the rule provided for a fee of $15 in any jumping race where the prize did not exceed $500.—Pilot in Sydney Referee.

Winner—Ch. f., by Maddallo—Alberta H. (trained by J. Glass).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. IDIOLA led under hard restraint until straightened out in the stretch, then drew out decisively and finished fast. KEWPIE showed fine speed, but lost ground by going wide and tired slightly near the end. NORMA L. had no mishaps and had to be hard ridden to outstay HALFPENCE. The latter ran green and closed a big gap in the last eighth. LADY REACH tired after going a quarter. The others ran green. Scratched—Thalia, 112.
Overweights—Neva H. Gorin, 1½ pounds.
